The Tang Monk trembled with fear. The animals showed their fangs. "Master!" cried Wukong. The monkey was running fast. He swung his iron bar, and the animals ran back into the forest.

Wukong smiled. "Sorry for making the horse run, Master. I thought it would be funny." The Tang Monk frowned. "It wasn't funny at all! Those beasts were going to attack me!" "Nonsense," said Wukong. "You never have to fear
