E31：Journey to the West （Guanyin's Vase 观音菩萨的净瓶）下

单词数：301个　小初3500词　　DATE:

"You must learn to control your anger," said Guanyin. The bodhisattva stood up. She went to a shelf and grabbed a vase. "This vase is filled with magic dew," she said. "It can bring spirit plants, such as the ginseng tree, back to life."

A short while later, Wukong and Guanyin arrived at the abbey. Guanyin told Wukong, Bajie, and Wujing to stand the tree back up. Guanyin rose into the air and poured the dew over the ginseng tree. As the dew droplets rolled over the branches, light sparkled. The tree's color came back, and new leaves and fruit grew. Soon the tree looked just as it had the day before.

To thank everyone, the Great Immortal decided to host a feast. "I would like to share some ginseng fruit with everyone here," he said.

Everyone went back into the abbey. The two priests brought in trays of ginseng fruits.

"Mmm," said Bajie. "This fruit tastes wonderful if you eat it slowly." He looked at Wukong. "Sorry I didn't believe you earlier."

"Don't worry about it," said the monkey. He took a bite of his fruit.

The Tang Monk looked nervously at his fruit. "It's safe to eat," Guanyin assured him.

The monk took a bite and smiled. He looked at the ginseng fruit again. "It doesn't look like a baby anymore," he said.
