"I'm hungry," Bajie moaned. His stomach grumbled loudly. "Can we stop walking?"

"We'll stop for lunch soon," said the Tang Monk. "The weather is nice, and the road is smooth. I want to keep moving. I'm eager to reach the Western Paradise."

Wukong laughed. "Master, I don't know why you're still going there. You should have married that scorpion spirit instead!"

The Tang Monk frowned. "That's not funny, Wukong."
