E95：Journey to the West （The Raptor Demon 大鹏怪）下

单词数：302个　小初3500词　　DATE:

“Yep,” said the other fiend. The two fiends continued along the road.

Wukong was heartbroken. Tears poured from his eyes. “I failed you, Master! I couldn't protect you, and now you'll never reach the Western Paradise!” Wukong buried his head in his hands and cried for a long time.

Finally he stood up and wiped away the tears. “I know what I must do.”

The monkey leaped into the air and headed west. He arrived at the Thunderclap Monastery,

The lion demon shouted, "How dare you—" Suddenly he looked up and saw an enormous figure. "Buddha!"

The lion and the elephant trembled with fear. Light flashed as Buddha turned the two demons into ordinary animals.

Only the raptor demon wasn't scared. His eyes burning with fury, the bird shot toward Buddha. But Buddha raised a finger, and the bird was paralyzed in midair.

Buddha looked at Wukong. "You may free your companions now. I will see you when you reach the Western Paradise."

Wukong bowed. "Thank you, Buddha."
