E105：Journey to the West （The Thunderclap Monastery 雷音寺）下

单词数：308个　小初3500词　　DATE:

Wukong's heart swelled. He wiped a tear from his eye. "Thank you," said the Tang Monk. "It was an honor to make the journey."

Servants brought a meal to the travelers. When the travelers were done eating, a guard led them to a large room filled with magical light and mist. Wooden chests lined the walls. Inside the chests were countless scrolls.

"Marvelous," the Tang Monk murmured. "The True Scriptures are written on these scrolls," said the guard. He picked out three scrolls and handed them to the Tang Monk.

Speechless, the monk gazed at the scrolls. Then he handed them to Wujing and Bajie. The two spirits carefully wrapped the scrolls and placed them in a bag.

Again the travelers bowed before Buddha. " Take the True Scriptures back to the Tang Empire ," said Buddha.

"Ugh, another long journey," Bajie murmured. "Stop complaining, Bajie," whispered Wukong. Bajie whispered back. "Don't tell me what to do."

"Both of you, stop arguing!" whispered Wujing .

Buddha was still talking. "The scriptures will teach the people there to be good and to treat each other kindly. But take good care of the scriptures. They are extremely valuable. Once you
